

2019 WYOPASS AWARDS

Call for Nominations

AWARD CATEGORIES AND CRITERIA

Planning Project – Urban: In recognition of an outstanding planning project for a jurisdiction with a large population base, which project promotes sound planning principles and practices that lead to positive outcomes.

- Criteria – Urban awards shall be for cities with populations over 4,000 and counties with populations over 25,000. The nominated project must be completed or include an implementation schedule along with documentation of financial commitment, citizen involvement and community support for the project.
- The nominee must be a full member of WYOPASS.

Planning Project – Rural: In recognition of an outstanding planning project for a rural jurisdiction that promotes sound planning principles and practices that lead to positive outcomes.

- Criteria – Rural awards are designated for cities and towns with populations under 4,000 and counties with population under 25,000. The nominated planning project must be completed or include an implementation schedule. The project must demonstrate citizen involvement and community support.
- The nominee must be a full member of WYOPASS.

Planner of the Year: In recognition of significant contributions to “Planning for a Better Wyoming.”

- Criteria – The nominee must be a consultant or a professional planner serving a governmental jurisdiction. The nominee will be judged on examples of work related projects, activities, achievements, community involvement, accomplishments, and demonstrated commitment to the planning profession.

Planner of the Year – New Professional: In recognition of outstanding work by a planner who is new to the profession.

- Criteria – The nominee should be someone who has recently entered the planning profession. The nominee will be judged on attitude, community involvement, ability to work with the public and staff, recent accomplishments and any similar contributions.

Planning and Zoning Commission – Group or Individual: In recognition of dedicated service on behalf of “Planning for a Better Wyoming.”

- Criteria – Nominees must be an appointed board or commission, such as a town, city or county planning and zoning commission or board of adjustment; or, a person serving on an appointed commission or board, which board, commission, or person demonstrates a proven commitment to sound planning principles and support for local planning efforts.

To nominate a person or group, please fill out the attached form and submit it along with supporting documents by September 13, 2019 to:

Sid Fox, AICP
sidneyfox@carbonwy.com
307-328-2614

2019 WYOPASS Award Nomination Form

Please complete the following:

Award Category:

Planning Project	Urban _____	Rural _____
Planner of the Year	_____
Planner of the Year "New Professional"	_____
Appointed Commission or Individual	_____

Nominee's name:

Location of project, planner, or commission:

Name, title, and contact information for person submitting the nomination:

Telephone Number: _____ Email: _____

On a separate page, please describe how the planning project, planner, or commission has accomplished the criteria noted for the award (1st page).

Include any additional reasons why you believe the award is deserved.

Attach photos or copies of supporting materials that are available and/or applicable to the award category.

Return the completed form and supporting material to Sid Fox, AICP by September 13, 2019

Sid Fox, AICP
 Director of Planning & Zoning
 Carbon County
 307-328-2614
sidneyfox@carbonwy.com

Please take advantage of this important opportunity to recognize the many outstanding planning activities occurring in Wyoming!

Awards will be presented at the WYOPASS Fall Conference in Gillette, October 9-13