

Planning & Development Manager

Hiring Range: $5,416 to $6,250 per Month

Website to apply: www.cheyennecity.org

The City of Cheyenne is located at the northern end of the growing Rocky Mountain Front Range, located 90 minutes north of Denver International Airport. As the Capital of Wyoming, Cheyenne is a growing community with a very stable economy. Cheyenne is big enough to offer a wider variety of amenities and culture while retaining the feel of a smaller town.

The City of Cheyenne is seeking a dynamic and experienced individual for a key management level position within Department. The desired candidate will have leadership skills and a track record of managing people and projects in a fast paced and often challenging environment. The position calls for a commitment to providing dedicated public service and ability to work in a collaborative and innovative fashion.
